Please join us for a Coffee Hour in the Fellowship Hall following the service. The Leadership Board will meet at 11:30.

Easter Sunday is April 1st this year. Easter lilies and assorted spring plants may be ordered until Wed., March 21st. There will be an order sheet located in Fellowship Hall for the next two Sundays. Please contact Hillary Transue at 862-5907 if you have any questions.

We've scheduled several Academy Award Best Picture nominees for the Common Ground Coffeehouse, including this week: Lady Bird*, Friday, March 16 at 7:15 p.m., a "heartfelt coming-of-age story that perfectly captures the bittersweet transition from adolescence to dawning adulthood" in 2002 Sacramento (Village Voice). No, it didn't win. It received Oscar nominations, but no statuettes, for its writer-director Greta Gerwig; Best Actress (Saoirse Ronan as the teenager who is exactly like her mother); and Best Supporting Actress (Laurie Metcalf as the mom). As always, a supper will be served at 6:30 p.m., and coffee and dessert just before the film.

Please sign up in the Fellowship Hall to bring an entrée or dessert for one of our upcoming coffeehouse events: March 23, Tim Frantzich concert; March 30, Darkest Hour; April 6, The Shape of Water.

On Friday, March 23, the Coffeehouse will host singer/songwriter Brother Timothy (Timothy Frantzich) for a solo concert, "Songs and Poems of Peace." Timothy and his brother Paul performed here in 2012. A donation of $20 per person is suggested.

Tony Pappas and Steve Hollaway are facilitating a Lenten Luncheon Bible study group on Thursdays at 12:00 noon, ending promptly no later than 1:00 p.m. The series title is: "When Bad Feelings Happen to Good People: What we can learn from Jesus." Each week we will look at one emotion, how Jesus responded to it, and how we can wrestle with that emotion. We will meet in the Fellowship Hall this week, with Tony leading the discussion of "feeling misunderstood and unappreciated."

Mark your calendars: Lent and Easter come early this year!
