*CALL TO WORSHIP

Worship Leader

The Lord is king! Let the nations tremble!

He sits on his throne between the cherubim.

Let the whole earth quake!

The Lord sits in majesty in Jerusalem, exalted above all the nations.

Let them praise your great and awesome name.

Your name is holy!

Mighty King, lover of justice, you have established fairness.

You have acted with justice and righteousness throughout Israel.

Exalt the Lord our God!

Bow low before his feet, for he is holy! (Psalm 99:1-5 NLT)

*INVOCATION

Given by Martin Luther King Jr. at the

Billy Graham Crusade in Madison Square Garden, 1957

Let us pray. O God, our Heavenly Father, out of whose mind this great cosmic universe has been created, toward whom the weary and perplexed of all generations turn for consolation and direction, we come before Thy presence thanking Thee for the many blessings of life. We come recognizing our dependence on Thee. We also come, O God, with an awareness of the fact that we have not always given our lives to that which is high and noble. In the midst of all of the high and noble aspects of justice, we followed injustice. We stand amid the forces of truth and yet we deliberately lie. We stand amid the compelling urgency of the Lord of Love, as exemplified in the life of Jesus Christ, and yet we live our lives so often in the dungeons of hate. For all of these sins, O God forgive.

And in these days of emotional tension, when the problems of the world are gigantic in extent and chaotic in detail, give us penetrating vision, broad understanding, power of endurance and abiding faith, and save us from the paralysis of crippling fear. And O God, we ask Thee to help us to work with renewed vigor for a warless world and for a brotherhood that transcends race or color.

Where Cross the Crowded Ways of Life

This hymn was written in 1903 by Methodist minister Frank Mason North, the leader of New York City Church Extension and Missionary Society, and the president of the Federal Council of Churches of Christ in America. He was ahead of his time as an advocate for women's rights, child labor laws, and workers' rights to organize.
