Movie and a Meal continues this Friday, Nov. 15 with a film mixing biography, comedy and drama. "Can You Ever Forgive Me?" tells the true story of an out-of-work author who took up deception and imitation to pay the bills when she fell out of step with changing tastes. Melissa McCarthy and Richard E. Grant star as unlikeable characters portrayed with unconditional love and understanding.

A light supper will be served every Friday night at 6:30 p.m.; dessert and coffee accompany the film at 7:00 p.m. Tell your friends about this great off-season social time! Upcoming:

11/22 Murder Mystery -- Jennifer Aniston and Adam Sandler play a couple whose vacation trip brings them more than they bargained for in a comedic whodunit!

11/29 No Movie and a Meal (Thanksgiving weekend)

12/6 First Man Bio/Drama/History -- A look at the life of astronaut Neil Armstrong, and the historic space mission that led him to become the first man to walk on the Moon. Starring Ryan Gosling and Claire Foy.
